

The California Press Association is beginning to move in the courts for the protection of legitimate advertising business.

For some years past the City and County Supervisors have fixed the rate of official advertising until they have screwed it down to a rate so low that it means starvation to the publisher. At Hollister the rate was reduced so low that none of the papers would do the advertising, and the Board disobeyed the law and attempted to purchase some land for the city without advertising for bids.

W. B. Union, acting on behalf of the California Newspapers League, brought an injunction suit restraining the auditor from issuing a warrant on the ground that the failure to advertise invalidated the sale. The Supreme Court agreed with the publisher and granted the injunction.

This victory means a great deal to the four or five hundred newspapers published in California, and if they organize and fight for their rights they will get out from under the heel of the officials and politicians, whose policy is to starve the publisher, with the idea that in his poverty he can be the more easily handled in election seasons.

In Nevada the State Board, taking the advice of the Attorney General, refused to advertise the Constitutional Amendments as the law provided, and the whole thing was set aside by the Supreme Court on the ground that the law had not been complied with. It cost the State a good deal of money to acquire this experience.

A few thick-headed and obstinate officials labor under the idea that the laws on the Statute books relating to newspapers are only there to "fill in," and not meant to be obeyed. One by one they are becoming convinced of their error, but it generally takes a court decision to let the light into their skulls, and their successors generally assume the duties of their offices with the same lessons of practical sense yet to learn.

The newspaper men of California have begun to teach their officials what the laws mean, and they have begun the work in good shape.

NO WATER STORAGE.

At the present writing the Carson river is running bank-full in places, and overflowing its banks in others. It is a rushing, foaming mass of water tearing through the country, destroying bridges and flooding farms.

It is all going to waste; a shameless, reckless waste that is a disgrace to this section. Not a drop going into a storage reservoir, but all going into the sandy sink of the Carson. Millions of dollars of wealth being lost because people cannot wake up to the importance of water storage. The people who could utilize the water, instead of building storage reservoirs, are going into a long useless and senseless litigation over this same water, and at the end of three or five years the lawyers will have mortgages on every farm in the valley, and the mills will be in luck if they do not own them also.

The money which will be spent in this fight would build these reservoirs twice over, but the lawyers have made their clients think they have a dead thing, and are closing the net around them.

The litigation will retard the progress of the country, and in the end the waters will flow as they do now, losing themselves in the sink of the Carson, of no use to anybody.

The bill requiring the recording of water rights was drawn up in the interests of people who want to fatten off protracted litigation, and in the end people will realize this fact very fully.

The State Fair programme is about ready for the printer.

Gradually Growing Greater

Small wonder that our business is growing. We have the goods, the prices, and a very faithful worker in the Illustrated Catalogue which we send out Spring and Autumn. It "hangs on a peg" in thousands of homes, and is consulted as often as the almanac. It is a truthful book, —not a line put in to mislead. It is a happy, cheerful book, full of pictures and descriptions of things that will make life easier and pleasanter. It is an independent book, publishing its prices without fear of criticisms or comparisons. It is a just book, giving everyone the chance to get the same goods and prices as everybody else, and favoring neither the rich nor the poor, the high nor the low. It is a handy book, useful for reference or information, whether you buy of us or not. It is a book for people who want to know "what's going on" in the world of dress. The newest conceits, styles and inventions find places in its handsome pages.

And it costs nothing! Sent free to any address on application. Weinstock, Lubin & Co., Sacramento, Cal. Clothing, Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats, Millinery, Notions, Household Supplies, etc. The Largest General Retail House on the Pacific Coast.

READY MADE DRESSES.

We keep ladies' dresses ready made in cashmere, wool and silk, at prices ranging from $7.50 to $27.50 for the complete costumes. The styles are changed twice each year, and full descriptions and illustrations of them are given in our Illustrated Catalogue. WEINSTOCK, LUBIN & Co., Sacramento.

MEN'S $3.50 TROUSERS.

We are making a great specialty of these goods, and are able to give unusual value for the money. The trousers are neatly cut, thoroughly well made and of medium-weight cloth. We change the patterns each season, and this year offer fine stripes in medium and dark effects. State which you prefer.
